

Join us @ Joslyn – Admission is FREE!

NATURE/PLAY

Saturday, April 14, 1–4 pm

Presented by Joslyn Art Museum & Omaha's Henry Doorly Zoo and Aquarium

SCOTT PAVILION

---

Swanson & Yanney Galleries

EXHIBITION

See Word/Play, featuring prints, photos, and paintings by Omaha-born artist Ed Ruscha. Tickets required from admissions desk: FREE for Joslyn members and all children; general public adults $5 today.

Strauss Bridge

ART-MAKING

Pull an animal-themed screen print inspired by Ed Ruscha's art in the exhibition Word/Play.

MEMORIAL BUILDING

---

Storz Fountain Court

ART-MAKING

Get messy making paper embedded with flower seeds.

Galleries

ART/BIO FACTS

Find the four paintings highlighted on the map and explore related natural materials – like fur and feathers – up close.

Lower Level

Abbott Lecture Hall

ANIMAL AMBASSADORS

Meet a live animal visitor at 1 and 3 pm.

Omaha Steaks Conference Room

NATURE TALES

Enjoy storytelling with Brian Priesman at 1:30 and 2:30 pm.

Art Works: A Place for Curiosity

ARTFUL PLAY

Discover nine activity stations for creative, hands-on fun.

SCULPTURE GARDENS

---

Discovery Garden

GARDEN SHOW-&-TELL

Stop by at 2 pm to learn about Joslyn's garden – both a certified wildlife habitat and a monarch waystation – from Kyle Johnson.

Throughout the Gardens

ANIMAL AMBASSADORS & NATURE GAMES

Watch for tiny animal visitors on the move at 1:30 and 3:30 pm (weather permitting), and play nature games throughout the day.

East Staircase Landing

ART-MAKING

Create two nature flags – one to add to a collaborative piece and one to take home.