

ART ADVENTURES visits

W A S T O R Y N T I M E

Omaha Public Library, South Omaha Branch, 2808 Q Street Third Fridays, September–December, 10:30 am

FREE drop-in program. Children must be accompanied by an adult. Questions? Contact Karla Lechtenberger, Joslyn's Education Programs Coordinator, at (402) 661-3846 or kl@joslyn.org.

While Joslyn Art Museum is closed for expansion and renovation, we will meet up with young learners and their adult chaperones at Omaha Public Library branches for this new program that combines long-time favorites, Art Adventures and Story Adventures. Join us for a themed storytime, presented by a librarian and complete with songs and creative movement, plus a hands-on art activity inspired by Museum works that connect to the day's theme! This free, drop-in program is geared toward preschoolers, but all ages are welcome to participate in the fun.

September 16: Storytelling

Draw and paint your own story!

October 21: Color & Pattern

Explore shapes, patterns, and mixing colors with paint.

November 18: Animals

Manipulate clay to make an animal sculpture.

December 16: Nature

Try printmaking using real leaves!

Looking Ahead...

Same fun activities, different location! Join us at Washington Branch, January–April, 2023.
