

Fall into AUTUMN

Scavenger Hunt

Kids are back in school, leaves are starting to change colors, and we want you to fall into autumn in our galleries. Find eight artworks using the clues below.

Gallery 4

Although the books appear to be present, the student does not seem to be diligently studying.

Gallery 6

Look at the wonderful colors fall produces. Autumn is believed to be the most beautiful time of the year.

North Corridor (Outside Gallery 10)

This bronze statue includes a traditional tool used for harvesting crops.

Bonus Round

Where can you see all four seasons in one artwork?

Hint:
Pavilion
Galleries

Gallery 9

During a "Harvest Ball," this elegant vessel contains the all important punch.

Balcony

Find these American Indians celebrating a traditional midwestern crop.

Gallery 5

Is this women sheltering from the passing rain, or is she resting?

Gallery 4

These freshly picked grapes shall soon begin the long process of fermenting into wine.

Answer to bonus: Jennifer Steinkamp, Judy Crook, 2, 2013