CONCERTS CELEBRATE THE SEASON DURING JOSLYN ART MUSEUM’S ANNUAL HOLIDAY UNDER GLASS

Omaha, Neb. – Enjoy the sounds of the season during Holiday Under Glass, Joslyn Art Museum’s annual holiday luncheon concert series held in the Museum’s glass atrium. The 2014 series is scheduled for Wednesdays and Fridays, December 3 through December 19, from noon to 12:45 pm. Optional tours of special exhibitions and the permanent collection follow the concerts at 1 pm. Joslyn’s Café Durham, located in the atrium, is open from 10:30 am to 3 pm. The concerts and permanent collection tours are included in free general Museum admission; admission charge for general public adults for tours of In Living Color: Andy Warhol and Contemporary Printmaking. For groups of 10 or more, call Joslyn at (402) 661-3823 in advance; some dates have already reached their group reservation limit. The concerts will feature holiday favorites and classical arrangements performed by area musicians, including high school, university, and other music groups.

ConAgra Foods Foundation is a sponsor of Joslyn Art Museum’s 2014 Holiday Under Glass concert series as part of its Shine the Light on Hunger campaign this holiday season. Concert-goers are encouraged to bring nonperishable food items to the Museum to donate to Food Bank for the Heartland (general public adults who donate food during Holiday Under Glass receive $1 off their same-day purchase of tickets to the special exhibition In Living Color: Andy Warhol and Contemporary Printmaking).

Our Mission — Joslyn Art Museum collects, preserves, and interprets the visual arts of the highest quality, fostering appreciation and enjoyment of art for the benefit of a diverse audience. Our Vision — To be cherished and respected as a premier art museum.

Joslyn Art Museum showcases art from ancient times to the present. The Museum was a gift to the people of Omaha from Sarah Joslyn in memory of her husband, George, who made his fortune as president of the Western Newspaper Union. The Museum’s original 1931 building is one of the finest examples of Art Deco architecture in the nation, with 38 types of marble from seven countries. The Walter and Suzanne Scott Pavilion, a 58,000-square-foot addition built in 1994, was designed by renowned British architect Norman Foster as his first U.S. commission. The Museum features galleries, a 1,000-seat concert hall, fountain court, education technology gallery, lecture hall, classrooms, sculpture garden, café, and shop.

General Museum Admission: Free (some special exhibitions incur a ticket fee)
Regular Museum Hours: Tuesday through Sunday, 10 am–4 pm; late ’til 8 pm on Thursday; closed Monday and major holidays.
