(Omaha, NE) — Joslyn Art Museum's Young Art Patrons (YAP) presents the eighth annual GLOW event, Friday, August 26, from 7–11 pm. This year's masquerade-themed celebration will feature delicious food, signature drinks, energetic music, and dancing. The Museum is currently closed for construction and renovation, so GLOW will be held offsite at District Loft, offering a fusion of classic and contemporary style in the heart of Benson (6121 Maple Street).

GLOW guests will enjoy delectable, Mediterranean-inspired appetizer stations featuring charcuterie, roasted eggplant with pita and lahvosh, Moroccan chicken bites, and sweet treats, all included in the GLOW ticket cost. The cash bar will feature GLOW's signature drinks: The Flapper (gin, St-Germain elderflower liqueur, lemon juice, Crème de Violette) and The Dapper (bourbon, lemon juice, Domaine de Canton ginger liqueur, honey). DJ Chaos will keep the dance floor full all night long.

GLOW attire is classic or creative cocktail; masquerade masks are encouraged! This is a 21 and over event; cash bar; ATM onsite. GLOW is $25 for YAP members in advance (limit two tickets per YAP member); $35 for the general public in advance; $40 for all at the door. This event fills quickly; make reservations in advance at <https://bit.ly/YAPGLOW2022>. Guests will check-in upon arrival. Reservations are non-refundable. Follow this event on Facebook: @YAPJoslyn and @joslynartmuseum

GLOW event sponsors are Omaha Steaks, Buildertrend, DLR Group, and Koley Jessen Attorneys. Event partners are Abraham Catering, District Loft, DJ Chaos Productions, Mac Rae Productions, and United Rent-All.

Joslyn Art Museum showcases art from ancient times to the present. The Museum was a gift to the people of Omaha from Sarah Joslyn in memory of her husband, George, founder of the Western Newspaper Union. The Museum's original 1931 building is one of the finest examples of Art Deco architecture in the nation. The Walter and Suzanne Scott Pavilion, a 58,000-square-foot addition built in 1994, was designed by renowned British architect Norman Foster as his first U.S. commission. The Museum features galleries, a 1,000-seat concert hall, fountain court, lecture hall, classrooms, sculpture garden, café, shop, and Art Works, an interactive space for art exploration. General admission to Joslyn Art Museum is free to all, always.

In October 2018, Joslyn announced Snøhetta has been selected to lead a physical and programmatic expansion that will be transformative for the Museum, the city of Omaha, and Nebraska. Construction began in July 2021 on the Museum's new 42,000-square-foot Rhonda and Howard Hawks Pavilion. Joslyn Art Museum closed to the public on May 2, 2022, to keep art and people safe during the extensive construction and renovation project. The Museum is scheduled to reopen in 2024. Read more at joslyn.org/expansion.
