#YAPglow

(Omaha, NE) — Joslyn Art Museum's Young Art Patrons (YAP) presents the sixth annual GLOW in the Garden on Friday, September 20, from 7–11 pm in the Museum's Peter Kiewit Foundation Sculpture Garden. Omaha's premier masquerade event, GLOW attendees enjoy games on the lawn, music and dancing, tasty local fare, and cocktails surrounded by sculpture, water features, and cozy lights.

The Churro Truck will serve their authentic street tacos and traditional, warm, fresh churros; the Cheese life Omaha will offer their famous macaroni and cheese; sweet treats will include dessert offerings from J. Gilbert's and Nothing Bundt Cakes; and the cash bar will feature GLOW's signature drinks: the Old Fashioned and a Lavender Vodka Lemonade. DJ ANIMALE's unique mix of hip-hop, electronica, rock, international music, and mashups will set the tone as party-goers hit the dance floor, framed by the Museum's gardens and grand staircase. Woodhouse Lincoln will have cars on display and activities will include a variety of yard games.
