#YAPglow

(Omaha, NE) – Joslyn Art Museum's Young Art Patrons (YAP) presents the fifth annual GLOW in the Garden on Friday, September 28, from 7:30–11 pm in the Museum's Peter Kiewit Foundation Sculpture Garden. Omaha's premier masquerade event, GLOW attendees enjoy games on the lawn, music and dancing, tasty local fare, and cocktails surrounded by sculpture, water features, and cozy lights.

Dante Pizzeria Napoletana will be onsite with a mobile pizza oven; The Churro Truck will serve their authentic street tacos and traditional, warm, fresh churros; guests can linger over a decadent buffet of sweet treats from local bakeries; and the cash bar will feature a GLOW signature drink. DJ ANIMALE's unique mix of hip-hop, electronica, rock, international music, and mashups will set the tone as party-goers hit the dance floor, framed by the Museum's gardens and grand staircase. Alfa Romeo of Omaha will have cars on display and activities will include a variety of yard games. A GLOW After Party will be held in the Blackstone District, with attendees receiving free drink tickets at Butterfish, Red Lion Lounge, and Stirnella Bar & Kitchen, compliments of Meadowlark Management.

GLOW attire is classic cocktail, and masks are encouraged. This is a 21 and over event; cash bar; ATM onsite. GLOW is $25 for YAP members in advance (limit two tickets per YAP member); $35 for the general public in advance; $40 for all at the door. General public groups of ten or more receive YAP member pricing ($25 per ticket) if booked in advance

Our Mission — Joslyn Art Museum collects, preserves, and interprets the visual arts of the highest quality, fostering appreciation and enjoyment of art for the benefit of a diverse audience.

Our Vision — To be cherished and respected as a premier art museum.

Joslyn Art Museum showcases art from ancient times to the present. The Museum was a gift to the people of Omaha from Sarah Joslyn in memory of her husband, George, who made his fortune as president of the Western Newspaper Union. The Museum's original 1931 building is one of the finest examples of Art Deco architecture in the nation, with 38 types of marble from seven countries. The Walter and Suzanne Scott Pavilion, a 58,000-square-foot addition built in 1994, was designed by renowned British architect Norman Foster as his first U.S. commission. The Museum features galleries, a 1,000-seat concert hall, fountain court, education technology gallery, lecture hall, classrooms, sculpture garden, café, shop, and Art Works, an interactive space for art exploration.

General Museum Admission: Free (additional charge for some special exhibitions)

Regular Museum Hours: Tuesday through Sunday, 10 am–4 pm; late 'til 8 pm on Thursday; closed Monday and major holidays.
